

RoadOne Appoints Executive Industry Veterans, Ed Aldridge, Jim Newsome and Cliff Pyron to Executive Advisory Board

Seasoned global shipping executives will support the Chairman and leadership team in shaping commercial strategy, expanding market reach and driving the company's next phase of growth.

Randolph, Massachusetts, April 30, 2026 - RoadOne IntermodaLogistics, a nationwide single source intermodal, warehouse and logistics services company, announces today that it has established an Executive Advisory Team composed of industry veterans, Ed Aldridge, Jim Newsome and Cliff Pyron.

These highly accomplished industry leaders with proven track records of driving transformation and delivering results will support Chairman, President and CEO, Ken Kellaway in accelerating execution against strategic commercial expansion priorities and market development, as well as the company's next phase of acquisitions.

Collectively, the Advisory Board members bring decades of executive leadership across the global container shipping industry, including experience leading major international carriers through periods of sustained performance, disruption and transformation. This experience will directly support RoadOne in 2026 and into the future as it strengthens its market position and continues to expand its nationwide footprint.

The Executive Advisory Board includes:

- Ed Aldridge has 40 years of experience working in the international logistics industry with key leadership roles including, President of APL, President of CMA CGM and Cargomatic
- Jim Newsome, a container shipping leader, has held a number of executive positions at key organizations including: CEO of Hapag-Lloyd America and CEO of the South Carolina Ports Authority in Charleston
- Cliff Pyron is a shipping industry leader with C-level roles for the last 40 years at Sealand, Maersk and NYK, and more recently Georgia Ports Authority, as Chief Commercial Officer

"This exceptional trio of industry leaders will further strengthen our position as a logistics leader across drayage, warehousing, transloading, and dedicated fleet operations. Their collective experience, insight, and leadership are unmatched, and will play a critical role in guiding our continued market expansion. Just as importantly, the Advisory Board is focused on helping our customers build more resilient, high-performing supply chains that reduce risk and drive long-term value," said Ken Kellaway, President and Chairman of the Board, RoadOne IntermodaLogistics.
